

University	University of Naples “Federico II” Erasmus code: I NAPOLI01
Places per year	Approximately 50-100 for the entire program.
Academic calendar	2018/19 Academic calendar
Restrictions	Students with unilateral mobility agreements are accepted in a limited number from partner Institutions only. Personal and third party insurances are required.
Language requirements	Italian/English B1 (CEFR)
Study plan	Our curriculum is structured into 6 years, 12 semesters (called cicli, cycles) and 36 integrated courses. International students can choose single modules as well. Practical training activities are scheduled individually with the students to suit their educational and organizational needs at the best. For more details, please check the International student handbook on the School of Medicine and Surgery’s website (International students menu).
Course catalogue	The course catalogue (Guida dello studente) is published in September on the website http://m39.corsidistudio.unina.it (Didattica / Guida dello studente). 2018/19 Academic Year Course catalogue
Additional information	Immunization record with documentary evidence of the immunization and vaccination status is required. The International student handbook is available on the School of Medicine and Surgery’s website (International students menu). General and practical information (application procedures, logistics, housing, living in Naples) is available on the University’s International website.